10% of economies covered have made payments for childcare tax deductible.

66% of economies covered provide public childcare for children under the age of primary education.

91% of economies covered mandate free and compulsory primary education.

In 100 economies women receive 100% of their wages during maternity leave.

In 73 economies the government alone pays for maternity leave.

In 17 economies the government alone pays for paternity leave.

In 33 economies the government alone pays for parental leave.

In 50 economies men receive 100% of their wages during paternity leave.

In 8 economies a parent receives 100% of their wages during parental leave.

About the Women, Business and the Law Report Series: Women, Business and the Law analyzes legal differences on the basis of gender in 164 economies, covering 14 unique areas, gathering access by institutions, using property, getting a job, providing incentives to work, building credit, going to court, and protecting women from violence.

wbl.worldbank.org