

Sri Lanka

Women, Business and the Law 2020 presents an index covering 190 economies and structured around the life cycle of a working woman. In total, 35 questions are scored across the eight indicators. Overall scores are then calculated by taking the average of each indicator, with 100 representing the highest possible score. Data refer to the laws and regulations that are applicable to the main business city (Colombo). Different rules may apply in other jurisdictions so local legislation should be reviewed. Based on this approach, Sri Lanka scores 68.1 out of 100. The overall score for Sri Lanka is higher than the regional average observed across South Asia (62.4).

Sri Lanka - Scores for Women, Business and the Law 2020

Relative Strengths

When it comes to constraints on freedom of movement, and constraints related to marriage, Sri Lanka gets a perfect score.

Areas for Improvement

However, when it comes to laws affecting women's decisions to work, laws affecting women's pay, laws affecting women's work after having children, constraints on women's starting and running a business, gender differences in property and inheritance, and laws affecting the size of a women's pension, Sri Lanka could consider reforms to improve legal equality for women.

For example, one of the lowest scores for Sri Lanka is on the indicator related to laws affecting women's pay (the WBL2020 Pay Indicator). To improve on the Pay Indicator, Sri Lanka may wish to consider mandating equal remuneration for work of equal value, allowing women to work the same night hours as men, and allowing women to work in all the same industries as men.

Recent Reforms (2018-2019)

Parenthood: Sri Lanka extended the duration of paid maternity leave from 59 to 118 days.
