

Colombia

Women, Business and the Law 2021 presents an index covering 190 economies and structured around the life cycle of a working woman. In total, 35 questions are scored across the eight indicators. Overall scores are then calculated by taking the average of each indicator, with 100 representing the highest possible score. Data refer to the laws and regulations that are applicable to the main business city (Bogota). Different rules may apply in other jurisdictions so local legislation should be reviewed. Based on this approach, Colombia scores 81.9 out of 100. The overall score for Colombia is higher than the regional average observed across Latin America & Caribbean (80.1). Within the Latin America & Caribbean region, the maximum score observed is 95 (Peru).

Colombia - Scores for Women, Business and the Law 2021

Relative Strengths

When it comes to constraints on freedom of movement, laws affecting women's decisions to work, constraints related to marriage, and gender differences in property and inheritance, Colombia gets a perfect score.

Areas for Improvement

However, when it comes to laws affecting women's pay, laws affecting women's work after having children, constraints on women's starting and running a business, and laws affecting the size of a woman's pension, Colombia could consider reforms to improve legal equality for women.

For example, one of the lowest scores for Colombia is on the indicator related to laws affecting women's pay (the WBL2021 Pay Indicator). To improve on the Pay Indicator, Colombia may wish to consider mandating equal remuneration for work of equal value, and allowing women to work in an industrial job in the same way as men.

Recent Reforms

No reforms were observed during the past year.
