

Madagascar

Women, Business and the Law 2022 (WBL2022) presents an index covering 190 economies and structured around the life cycle of a working woman. In total, 35 questions are scored across eight indicators. Overall scores are then calculated by taking the average of each indicator, with 100 representing the highest possible score. Data refer to the laws and regulations that are applicable to the main business city (Antananarivo). Different rules may apply in other jurisdictions so local legislation should be reviewed. Based on this approach, Madagascar scores 71.9 out of 100. The overall score for Madagascar is higher than the regional average observed across Sub-Saharan Africa (71.5). Within the Sub-Saharan Africa region, the maximum score observed is 89.4 (Mauritius).

Madagascar - Scores for Women, Business and the Law 2022

Relative Strengths

When it comes to laws affecting women's decisions to work, and laws affecting the size of a woman's pension, Madagascar gets a perfect score.

Areas for Improvement

However, when it comes to constraints on freedom of movement, laws affecting women's pay, constraints related to marriage, laws affecting women's work after having children, constraints on women starting and running a business, and gender differences in property and inheritance, Madagascar could consider reforms to improve legal equality for women.

For example, one of the lowest scores for Madagascar is on the indicator measuring laws affecting women's pay (the WBL2022 Pay indicator). To improve on the Pay indicator, Madagascar may wish to consider mandating equal remuneration for work of equal value, allowing women to work in jobs deemed dangerous in the same way as men, and allowing women to work in an industrial job in the same way as men.

Recent Reforms

No reforms were observed during the past year (October 2nd, 2020 – October 1st, 2021).
