Women, Business and the Law 2023 (WBL2023) presents an index covering 190 economies and structured around the life cycle of a working woman. In total, 35 questions are scored across eight indicators. Overall scores are then calculated by taking the average of each indicator, with 100 representing the highest possible score. Data refer to the laws and regulations that are applicable to the main business city (Suva). Different rules may apply in other jurisdictions so local legislation should be reviewed. Based on this approach, Fiji scores 82.5 out of 100. The overall score for Fiji is higher than the regional average observed across East Asia and the Pacific (72.6). Within the East Asia and the Pacific region, the maximum score observed is 91.9 (Hong Kong SAR, China).

Fiji - Scores for Women, Business and the Law 2023

Relative Strengths

When it comes to constraints on freedom of movement, laws affecting women’s decisions to work, constraints related to marriage, and gender differences in property and inheritance, Fiji gets a perfect score.

Areas for Improvement

However, when it comes to laws affecting women's pay, laws affecting women's work after having children, constraints on women starting and running a business, and laws affecting the size of a woman's pension, Fiji could consider reforms to improve legal equality for women.

For example, one of the lowest scores for Fiji is on the indicator measuring laws affecting women’s pay (the WBL2023 Pay indicator). To improve on the Pay indicator, Fiji may wish to consider mandating equal remuneration for work of equal value, and allowing women to work in an industrial job in the same way as men.

Recent Reforms

No reforms were observed during the past year (October 2nd, 2021 – October 1st, 2022).
